ChFC® - Chartered Financial Consultant®:

The ChFC® is offered by The American College. To receive the ChFC® designation, you must successfully complete all courses in your selected program, meet experience requirements and ethics standards, and agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures.

Three years of full-time business experience is required for all Huebner School designations. The following activities meet the required business experience qualifications included in the ChFC® certification process.

The Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) designation is obtained by completing 6 core, 2 elective courses and a final exam for each course. As a prerequisite, the IAR must have 3 years of full time business experience within the 5 years preceding the awarding of the designation. This designation requires 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years.

CIMA® - Certified Investment Management Analyst®:

The CIMA® certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for investment management consulting. Prerequisites for the CIMA® certification are three years of financial services experience and an acceptable regulatory history. To obtain the CIMA® certification, candidates must pass an online Qualification Examination, successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider, pass an online Certification Examination, and have an acceptable regulatory history. CIMA® designees are required to adhere to the Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards of Practice, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks set forth by The Investments & Wealth Institute®, formerly the Investment Management Consultants Association® (IMCA®). CIMA® designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics hours, every two years to maintain the certification. The designation is administered through The Investments & Wealth Institute®, formerly the Investment Management Consultants Association® (IMCA®).
